

The Gay Men's Chorus of South Florida proudly continues its commitment to celebrating the richly talented and diverse artists in our region. We proudly welcome the following, guest artists to our March concert.

Lissette Jimenez, mezzo-soprano

Bio Forthcoming

Sean Sterling, Florida Singing Sons soprano

Sean Sterling is a fourth-year member of Florida Singing Sons. As a member of Florida Singing Sons' Concert Choir, he has performed at many venues in South Florida in addition to touring Italy last Summer. He has previously represented Florida Singing Sons as a featured guest soloist with the Broward Symphony Orchestra and the Nova Singers. A resident of Parkland, Sean is a 7th grade student at Westglades Middle School.

The Cuban Classical Ballet of Miami

The Cuban Classical Ballet of Miami (CCBM) was founded in 2006 by Pedro Pablo Pena. The CCBM is solely dedicated to performing and preserving the classical ballet repertoire as exemplified by the world-renowned Cuban ballet tradition. CCBM is the only professional ballet company in Miami that produces classical ballet works exclusively. Famous for its artistic virtuosity and technical brilliance, the Cuban Ballet School has trained some of the most well-known dancers of today and the late 20th century and has created a technique that is unmatched in modern day classical ballet.